Financial Policy

We gladly provide to you the service of submitting insurance claims for our patients. We make a good faith attempt to estimate your portion for a particular procedure or treatment plan. Our estimate and the insurance's predetermination is not a promise of payment or accuracy. Our estimate is subject to final approval by your insurance company, therefore, the amount due is subject to change after your insurance company pays. Any discrepancy between the estimated and the actual insurance coverage will be billed to you or credited to your account, as the case may be. The estimated amount not covered by your insurance is due at the time of treatment and may be paid by cash, check, debit card, or credit card (Discover, MasterCard, and Visa). It is your responsibility to be familiar with your particular insurance policy, such as, deductibles, maximums, covered and non-covered benefits, waiting periods, and frequency limitations for recare appointments and x-rays. Not every dental treatment is a covered benefit. In any case, you are responsible for the cost of dental treatment not covered by your insurance contract.

In the unfortunate event that your account is found in arrears and the practice must refer to a collection agency, you will be responsible for all fees incurred from collection of your bill, such as, attorney fees, court costs, and collections agency fees.
